Geometry

85796 001

Fall 2026

Instructor Name

Thomas Bieske

University Course Description

Emphasis on axiomatics, advanced Euclidean geometry, elements of projective geometry, non-Euclidean geometries.

Course Requisites

Prerequisite(s):

(MAC 2311 Minimum Grade: C
or MAC 2281 Minimum Grade: C or Calculus AB Minimum Score: 3 or Calculus BC Minimum Score: 3 or Calculus AB Subscore Minimum Score: 3)

Corequisite(s):

Course Format

The course will consist of the following components:

- Lectures to discuss new material

- In-class group projects for hands-on exploration.
- Final projects presentations.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Explain basic geometric definitions and concepts to classroom students.
- Write and verify proofs of geometric facts.
- Understand concepts of plane geometry and be able to explain them to classroom students.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, students will understand a variety of geometry topics that middle school teachers need to know at a conceptual level.

Students will demonstrate the following:

How to communicate (speak, read, & write) mathematically. This includes:

- How to use proper mathematical vocabulary, symbols, syntax, & pictures when providing mathematical results, both orally and in writing.
- How to present a mathematical argument and solution to a homework problem to their peers.
- Write mathematical proofs.
- Identify, classify into categories, and represent two-dimensional objects such as triangles, quadrilaterals, regular polygons, circles.
- Understand notions like congruence, similarity, and scaling, and their representations as transformations of the plane.
- Become familiar with analytic and coordinate geometry including algebraic proofs of the main results of synthetic geometry, (e.g., Pythagorean Theorem)

Required Texts and/or Readings and Course Materials

None.

Supplementary (Optional) Texts and Materials

The class will be using material from various textbooks. To reduce student costs, none of these are required but students may wish to obtain copies of one or more of the following books:

1. Geometry, New Edition, by Jurgensen, Brown, and King.
2. Geometry by Jurgensen, Brown, and Jurgensen.
3. B.E.S.T. Standards for Math Florida Geometry with CalcChat and CalcView, Volume 1 and Volume 2 by Larson and Boswell. (Note: This is the Hillsborough County High School Geometry Textbook)
4. An Introduction to Writing Mathematical Proofs: Shifting Gears from Calculus to Advanced Mathematics by Bieske (Chapter 5). Note: On reserve in USF library.

Grading Scale

The following grading system will be in effect (overall grades may be curved):

Grading Scale (%)

94 – 100 A	74 – 76 C
90 – 93 A-	70 – 73 C-
87 – 89 B+	67 – 69 D+
84 – 86 B	64 – 66 D
80 – 83 B-	60 – 63 D-
77 – 79 C+	0 – 59 F

Grade Categories and Weights

Quizzes: 20%

Exams: 2 (20% each)

Homework: 15%

Final Project: 25%

Major Topics and Course Schedule

Event	Date
Exam 1	Oct. 15
Exam 2	Dec. 8
Final Project Presentations	Dec. 1 and Dec. 3

Schedule is subject to change as situations warrant.

USF Core Syllabus Policies

USF has a set of central policies related to student recording class sessions, academic integrity and grievances, student accessibility services, academic disruption, religious observances, academic continuity, food insecurity, pregnancy and related conditions, and sexual harassment that apply to all courses at USF. Be sure to review these online:

<https://www.usf.edu/provost/faculty-success/resources-policies-forms/core-syllabus-policy-statements.aspx>

Student Recordings

Florida Statute 1004.097 Free Expression on Campus

Students may, without prior notice, record video or audio of a class lecture for a class in which the student is enrolled for their own personal, educational use (USF Policy 10-048). A class lecture is defined as a formal or methodical oral presentation as part of a university course intended to present information or teach enrolled students about a particular subject. Recording class activities other than class lectures, including but not limited to lab sessions, student presentations (whether individually or part of a group), class discussion, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving student participation, test or examination administrations, field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty member is prohibited. Recordings may not be used as a substitute for class participation and class attendance and may not be published or shared without the written consent of the faculty member. Failure to adhere to these requirements may constitute a violation of the USF Student Conduct Code.

Course Policies: Grades

Homework Policy:

All homeworks count towards the final grade; no homework scores are dropped. Homework problems will be submitted in the proper order and written neatly in a well-organized manner. Paper will be stapled and not be torn from a notebook. Failure to meet professional standards will result in a 0 for that homework.

Quiz Policy:

All quizzes count towards the final grade; no quiz scores are dropped. Students will allowed a maximum of three (3) makeup quizzes.

Late Work Policy:

Late homework is not allowed unless the student has a valid excuse (such as those detailed in Make-up Exams Policy below) covering the entire period an assignment is outstanding.

Make-up Exams Policy:

Make-up exams will only be given for excused absences covering the whole period the take-home exam is available. Reasons for excused absences include documented illness, deaths in the immediate family and other documented crises, call to active military duty, court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty and subpoenas), religious days, special requirements of other courses and university sponsored events (e.g., performances, games/meets, judging trips, field trips), and severe weather conditions. Employment schedules, family reunions, doctor appointments, vacations and athletic training/practice schedules of students do not comprise a valid excuse for absences. Students must notify their instructors of scheduled absences (for approved reasons as noted above) at the beginning of each academic term. Pointing out specific conflicts with scheduled examinations or other scheduled assignments/activities should be part of this notification. In the event of an emergency unscheduled absence (as described above), students must contact their instructors as soon as possible and provide documentation if required. Extended illnesses may interfere with the satisfactory completion of courses, and in such cases a student should contact his or her college by the deadline to drop a course. After the drop deadline, students may submit an Academic Regulations Committee (ARC) petition with proper documentation to drop a course or withdraw for medical reasons. Students may find additional information through their college ARC representative. An instructor may determine that missing a certain amount of participation-dependent activities (whether excused or not) precludes successful accomplishment of learning outcomes. In such cases the student is advised to withdraw from the course.

Extra Credit Policy:

There is no extra credit.

Grades of "Incomplete"

The current university policy concerning incomplete grades will be followed in this course. For undergraduate courses: An "I" grade may be awarded to a student only when a small portion of the student's work is incomplete and only when the student is otherwise earning a passing grade. The time limit for removing the "I" is to be set by the instructor of the course. For undergraduate students, this time limit may not exceed two academic semesters, whether or not the student is in residence, and/or graduation, whichever comes first. For graduate students, this time limit may not exceed one academic semester. "I" grades not removed by the end of the time limit will be changed to "IF" or "IU," whichever is appropriate.

Campus Free Expression

It is fundamental to the University of South Florida's mission to support an environment where divergent ideas, theories, and philosophies can be openly exchanged and critically evaluated. Consistent with these principles, this course may involve discussion of ideas that you find uncomfortable, disagreeable, or even offensive.

In the instructional setting, ideas are intended to be presented in an objective manner and not as an endorsement of what you should personally believe. "Objective" means that the idea(s) presented can be tested by critical peer review and rigorous debate, and that the idea(s) is supported by credible research.

In this course you may be asked to engage with complex ideas and to demonstrate an understanding of the ideas. Understanding and engaging with an idea does not require you to believe it or to agree with it.

Course Policies: Technology and Media

Laptop and Phone Usage:

Students are not to use phones or laptops for non-academic purposes during class.

Course Policies: Student Expectations

Health and Wellness

Your health is a priority at the University of South Florida. We encourage members of our community to look out for each other and to reach out for help if someone is in need. If you or someone you know is in distress, please make a referral at www.usf.edu/sos so that the Student Outreach & Support can contact and provide helpful resources to the student in distress. A 24-hour licensed mental healthcare professional, offered through the counseling center, is available by phone at 813-974-2831, option 3. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, please dial 9-1-1.

Title IX Policy

USF is committed to fostering a safe and respectful learning environment, free from sex discrimination and sexual harassment, in accordance with Title IX and USF Policy 0-004. If a student shares an experience of sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, or relationship violence with a USF employee (including faculty), that employee will notify the Title IX Office. This allows the Title IX Office to send the student an email with information about support resources and options—if it is safe to do so. Students are not required to respond to this email. The Title IX Office is a private resource. Information is shared only on a need-to-know basis to provide students with support measures. To speak to a confidential resource, students may contact USF Center for Victim Advocacy at 813-974-5757. Confidential resources do not notify the Title IX Office unless the student requests it. For more information about Title IX, available resources, or to make a report, please visit www.usf.edu/title-ix.

Course Hero / Chegg Policy

The USF Policy on Academic Integrity specifies that students may not use websites that enable cheating, such as by uploading or downloading material for this purpose. This does apply specifically to Chegg.com and CourseHero.com – almost any use of these websites (including uploading proprietary materials) constitutes a violation of the academic integrity policy.

Professionalism Policy

Per university policy and classroom etiquette; mobile phones, iPods, etc. must be silenced during all classroom and lab lectures. Those not heeding this rule will be asked to leave the classroom/lab immediately so as to not disrupt the learning environment. Please arrive on time for all class meetings. Students who habitually disturb the class by talking, arriving late, etc., and have been warned may suffer a reduction in their final class grade.

Turnitin.com

In this course, turnitin.com may be utilized. Turnitin is an automated system which instructors may use to quickly and easily compare each student's assignment with billions of web sites, as well as an enormous database of student papers that grows with each submission. Accordingly, you may be expected to submit all assignments in both hard copy and electronic format. After the assignment is processed, as instructor I receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another author's work was used in the assignment. For a more detailed look at this process visit <http://www.turnitin.com>.

Netiquette Guidelines

- Act professionally in the way you communicate. Treat your instructors and peers with respect, the same way you would do in a face-to-face environment. Respect other people's ideas and be constructive when explaining your views about points you may not agree with.
- Be sensitive. Be respectful and sensitive when sharing your ideas and opinions. There will be people in your class with different linguistic backgrounds, political and religious beliefs or other general differences.
- Proofread and check spelling. Doing this before sending an email or posting a thread on a discussion board will allow you to make sure your message is clear and thoughtful. Avoid the use of all capital letters, it can be perceived as if you are shouting, and it is more difficult to read.

- Keep your communications focused and stay on topic. Complete your ideas before changing the subject. By keeping the message on focus you allow the readers to easily get your idea or answers they are looking for.
- Be clear with your message. Avoid using humor or sarcasm. Since people can't see your expressions or hear your tone of voice, meaning can be misinterpreted.

Email and Discussion Board Guidelines

- Use the subject line effectively by using a meaningful line of what your email or discussion is about.
- Keep your emails and postings related to the course content. You should not post anything personal on a discussion board unless it is requested by the instructor.
- Any personal, course or confidential issues should be directly communicated to the instructor via email. The discussion boards are public spaces; therefore, any issues should not be posted there.

End of Semester Student Evaluations

All classes at USF make use of an online system for students to provide feedback to the University regarding the course. These surveys will be made available at the end of the semester, and the University will notify you by email when the response window opens. Your participation is highly encouraged and valued.

Food and Drink Policy (for in-campus sessions only).

Please adhere to the firm policy of no beverages (other than bottled/capped water), food, tobacco products, or like items in the classroom. Your understanding of the necessity for this policy and cooperation will be greatly appreciated. This policy will be strictly enforced.

Learning Support and Campus Offices

Academic Accommodations

Students with disabilities are responsible for registering with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) in order to receive academic accommodations. For additional information about academic accommodations and resources, you can visit the SAS website.

Student Ombuds Office

Florida Statute 1006.51 and Florida Board of Governors Regulation 6.011 require that all public institutions provide ombuds services to students. The Student Ombuds Office at USF is a confidential, impartial, informal, and independent resource for students experiencing challenges related to the university. Ombuds can help students safely explore options, clarify processes, and consider next steps. Learn more or make an appointment at usf.edu/student-ombuds.
